*"Now we're living in that dream
we had not long ago."*

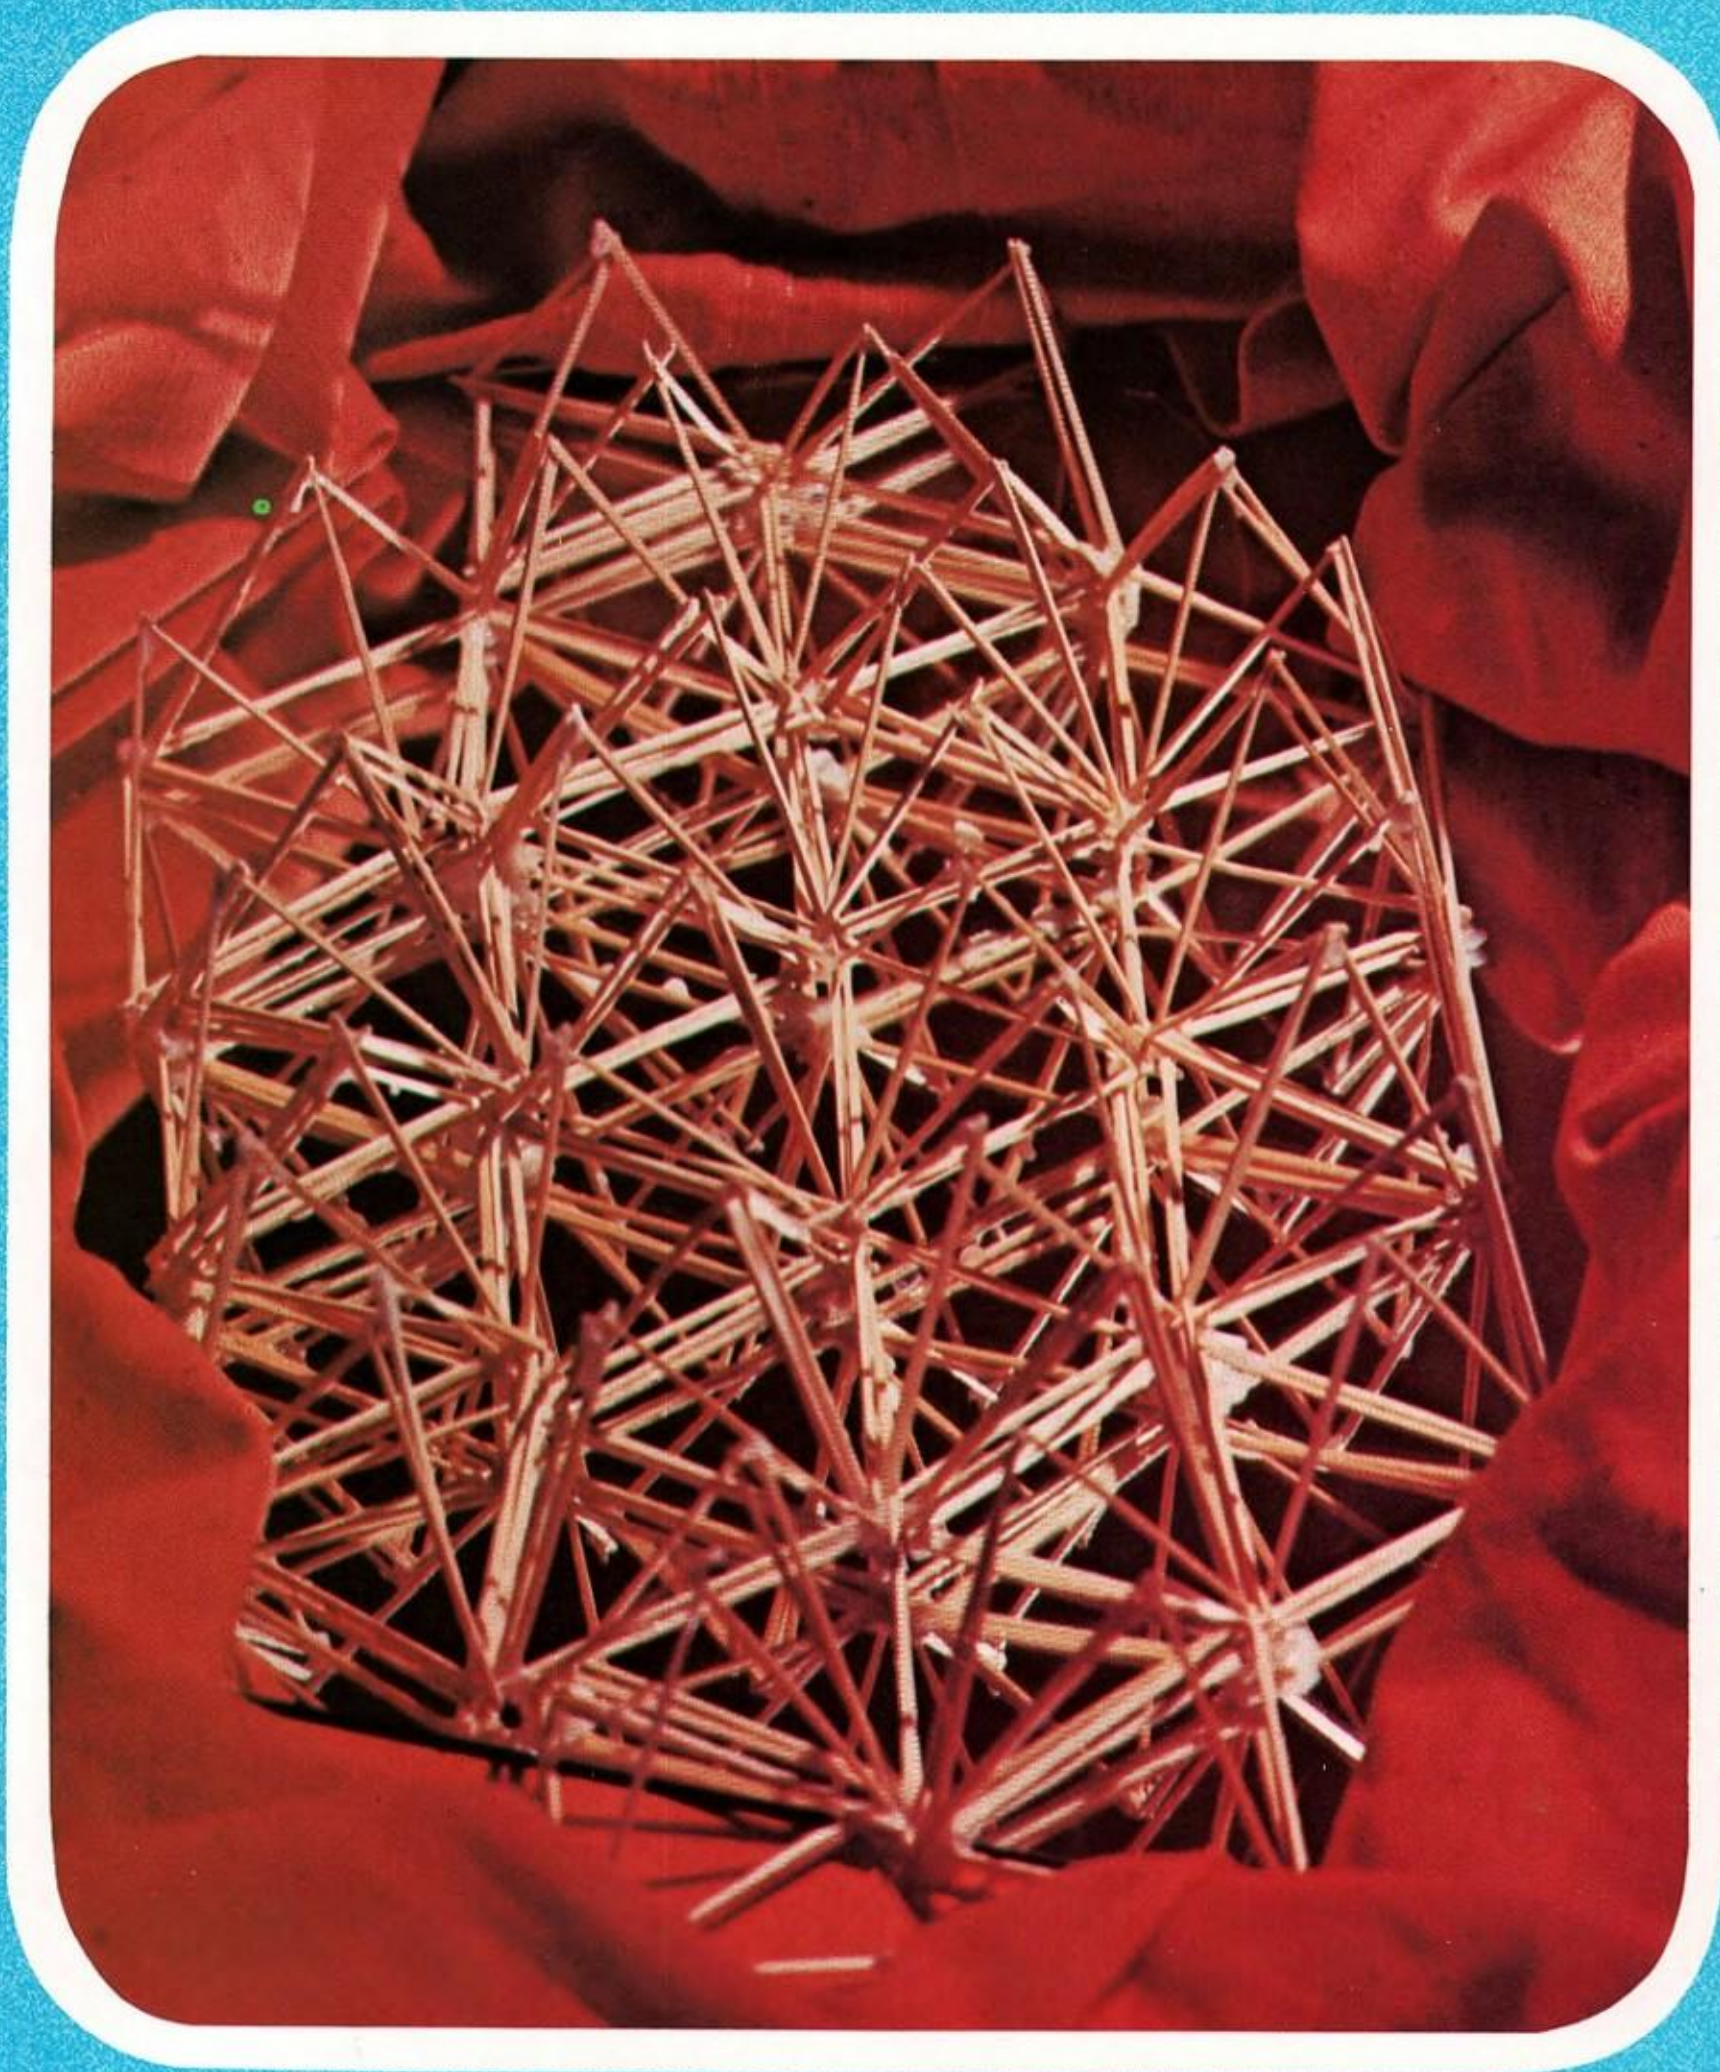

Everything is going fine,

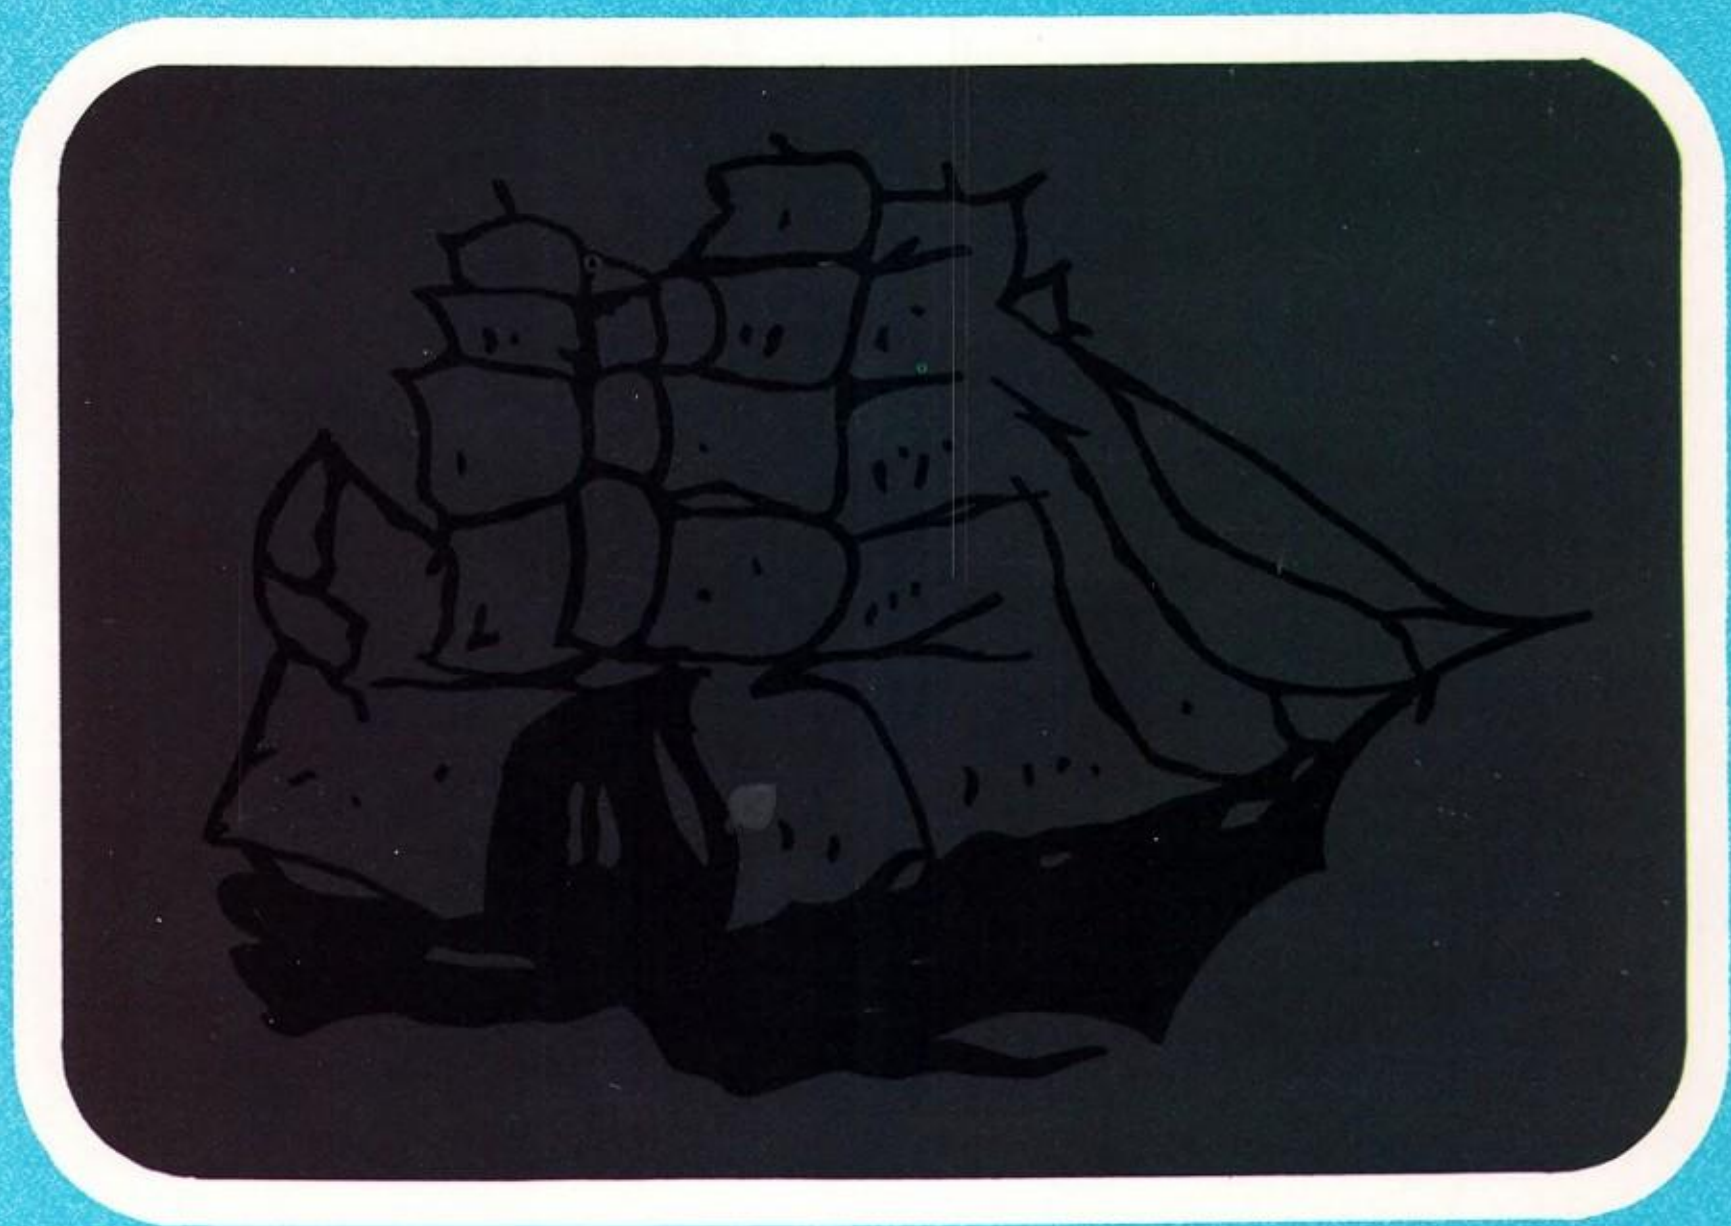

*and now,
we just have to keep in mind,*

We must not lose control.

We must set brand new goals.

All the possibilities of finding the discoveries

that would let everybody see, that we were just meant to be."

"Alma Mater"
by Terry Kath
Chicago

*All my life's a circle
Sunrise and sundown
Moon rose through the nighttime
Till the daybreak comes around*

*All my life's a circle,
but I can't tell you why
Seasons spinning 'round again
The years keep rolling by.*

"What is a Friend?"

It is a person
with whom you dare to be yourself.
Your soul can be naked with him.
He seems to ask of you to put on nothing only to be what you are.
He understands those contradictions in your nature that lead others to misjudge you.
With him you breathe freely.
You can avow your little vanities and envies and hates and vicious sparks, your meannesses, and absurdities and,
in opening them up to him, they are lost, dissolved on the white ocean of his loyalty.
He understands.
You can abuse him, neglect him, tolerate him.
Best of all, you can keep still with him.
You can weep with him, sin with him,
laugh with him, pray with him.
Through it all — and underneath
he sees, knows and loves you.
A friend? What is a friend?
Just one, I repeat,
with whom you dare to be yourself.

Senior All-Stars

The Seniors met their archrival Junior foes in what proved to be a blockbuster basketball game on Friday night, December 3, 1976. In spite of all the statements to the contrary, the class of '77 proved what we knew all along — we can't be beat. The number one class had done it again. Final Score: Seniors 44, Juniors 26.

Introducing — Kaleidoscope Editor

Here it is! The event of the year!
The climax of our school life at Spackenkill!

A yearbook takes a lot of hard work, creativity, patience and precious time to put together. It's a great experience to work with color, and I think it has really paid off in the quality of the book this year. Many students participated in a joint effort to produce such a publication.

We were very lucky to have the best yearbook staff thus far in Spackenkill. We have a lot of new, imaginative ideas, which makes for a totally different yearbook. We wanted the book to create a renewed interest in the students with new techniques and a new format.

I hope you enjoy our personality theme. We have developed it in great detail throughout the book. The staff felt that this book would reflect the environment of Spackenkill in its own special way. The book is designed so you can look back on it in years to come and relate to the story being told.

The cost of the yearbook was extremely high this year. The business staff had a big job to do in order to pay the bills. They went into the community to solicit ads from local merchants. They put on movies at the elementary schools and organized many other fund raising activities.

I want the whole staff to know how much they are appreciated for their contribution to the yearbook.

Special thanks to Ross and Debbie, Beth and Lisa, and Danny, Matt and Mike. The book would not have run as smoothly as it did if I did not have my two righthand men, Leonard and Butch. Mr. Bushey and Mrs. Klein, our advisors, did the best job words can say in guiding the staff. Brian Hawthorne, our Western Publishing representative, has given us much insight into the book. He's "not a bad guy" either!

Harvest Weekend had to be the best organized event the yearbook undertook this year. Mr. and Mrs. Langlois and the P.T.A. were an incredible help in the preparation and execution of the weekend. Ms. DiMaggio, Mr. Harrison and the faculty were also helpful. Theresa, Sharon, Amy and Nancy did a great job in organization of the two-day event.

I'd like to thank professional photographers for their contribution, Mr. Don Dormeyer (our professional photographer), Mr. Rudolph Albanese and Mr. Anthony Batista (football team picture).

As I look back on my four years at Spackenkill, I can see where involvement and stimulation of the students make for a good group of people. Spackenkill can improve tremendously, if more people become involved and some school spirit is shown.

Best wishes for the future to my friends and the entire student body.

Sincerely yours,

Kevin P. Hogan

Introducing Exchange

Meet our man from the Far East,
Sommart Krawkeo, Spackenkill's own
Thailand connection:

Hi, America!

My AFS year in America has provided me with a great experience which I could never get anywhere else. I was so afraid of new people, a new house, food and climate when I first came here. Now I have so many friends, and I'm not afraid any more. We've shared love, peace and joy and exchanged our views.

You're an American; I'm a Thai.
We have different languages, religions and customs, but we still get along with each other. I believe people with different backgrounds can live together peacefully in the same world and try to understand and love each other.

Give me your hand, and we'll "walk and talk together" for the peace of the world.

Peace to all beings,
Sommart Krawkeo
AFS/1976/77

Our Foreign Students

Smiles, sharing, good times, adjustments, friendships, delicious food, music, discotheques and warm, sincere people are all part of the many memories I have of the summer I spent in San Francisco, Argentina.

I learned so much — not only of the language, customs and culture of the Argentine people, but also of myself and human nature. It gave me an attitude of openmindedness, tolerance and understanding, and I gained a willingness to accept, not condemn, things that are different.

My experience is not over — it never will be. The friends I made are my friends for life. In their letters they tell me they wait for the day I return. So do I — and I will.

Another piece of triple-layer cake, Miss Blecher?

It's amazing what some people will do . . .

Spread 'em!

Stop smiling and get off my foot, you turkey!

Come and get it!

"It's not the pale moon . . ."

Looking back, we can see that these four years have flown by. We've learned and grown a lot. Past yearbooks are a perfect verification of this. As freshmen, we were a class of floundering youngsters, making mistakes and learning from them. As sophomores, we began amassing our "empire." With incomparable class spirit, we ran car washes, dances, and our most successful magazine drive. As juniors, we concentrated even more on our activities. We had a very successful prom due to the hard work of our prom committee. As seniors, we wanted the best yearbook; here it is. In addition to our trip to Williamsburg and other activities, our main task was the Senior Prom. After some "confrontations," we settled down and decided to take what we could and make the most of it, as only the class of '77 could do. Another major task was the preparation for graduation. We finally made it. Yes, we put many hours of hard work into these endeavors. I hope everyone had as much enjoyment and satisfaction from doing a good job as I did. Not only is it customary, but it is also most appropriate to give our most sincere thanks to: fellow officers: Jeff, Robin and Sharon; junior class officers, Lori and Cindy; sophomore officer, Sue; sophomore co-advisor, Mr. Mosconi; the class "reps" and interested people who offered their opinions and made suggestions; Mr. Harrison, our advisor, and Mrs. Scarborough, our new advisor, without whom we never could have dreamed of doing the things we did; the junior prom committee; the senior prom committee; the graduation committee; Dr. Breen and Mr. Rightmyer; the entire class of '77 for their backing and their being the wonderful people they are; Spackenkill High School students for their support.

Graduation is not an end; it is merely a beginning. I hope we can look back with fond memories and continue our friendships.

Thanks for your support,

See you,
Mark

SPACKENKILL HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT COUNCIL

PRESIDENT:	PAT HINKLEY
VICE PRESIDENT:	DEBI GELLER
TREASURER:	MATT OZBURN
SECRETARY:	SHARON O'SULLIVAN

Dear Class of '77,

Perhaps it is rather unusual, but as your advisor for the past three years I feel that special relationship has developed between myself and the class of '77. This feeling compels me to leave you with a few personal words in this memento of your high school years. I can still recall that day three years ago when two members of your class asked me to be your advisor. Being a new and nervous teacher, I had no idea what to expect, but I figured "Why not?" If I am going to get anything out of being a teacher, I might as well involve myself with the most important part of my job, you, the students. Looking back over the past three years, I find that the experience has been very rewarding, and I consider it an honor to have been your advisor. I firmly believe that you are one of the finest groups of people to pass through these halls and that you deserve much credit for the school spirit you helped to generate. I personally am very proud of your accomplishments. I hope that you will someday look back fondly at the many activities which you took part in together, events such as roller skating trips, plays in New York City, junior-senior basketball, and, of course, your memorable proms. I would also like to make a point of thanking the many students in your class who worked their hearts out for you and made many of those good times possible.

I realize that in the years to come the names, faces and facts learned in Spackenkill High will fade away, but try never to forget that you were part of a unique, spirited and precedent setting class that will always be remembered, especially by your advisor.

In closing, I have no worn-out quotations or pearls of wisdom to leave with you, just a heartfelt wish that each and everyone of you will find peace, happiness and success in your lives.

Your advisor, Mr. Harrison

Circle

All my life's a circle,
sunrise and sundown,
Moon rose through the night time
till the daybreak comes around.

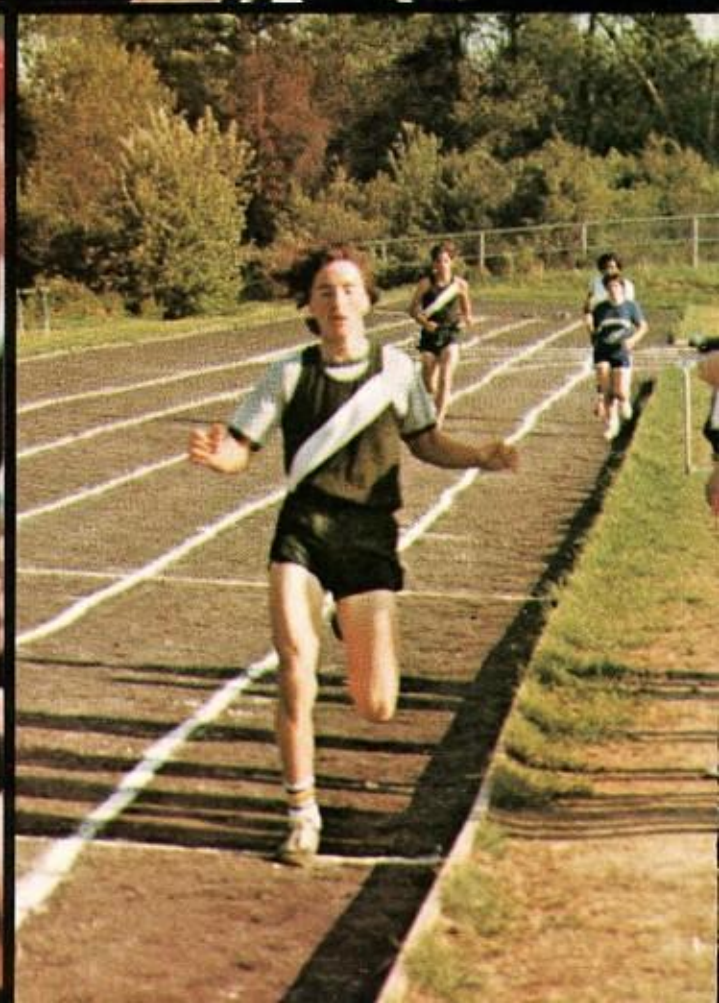

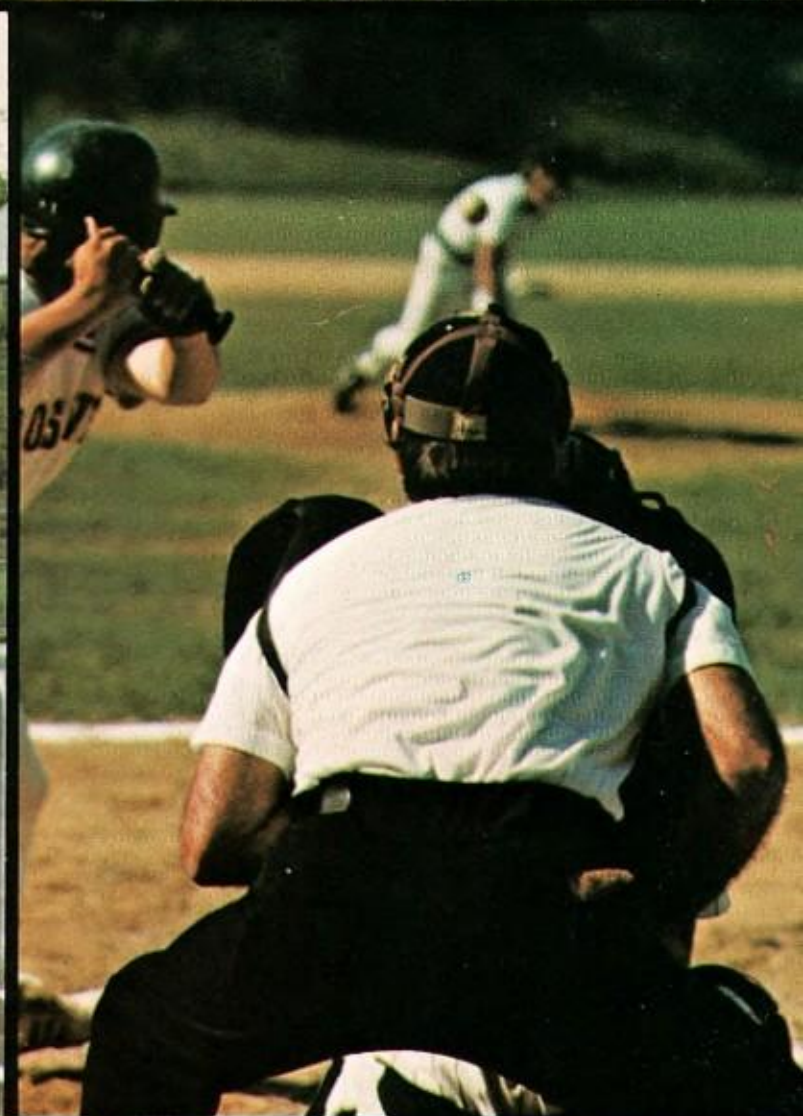

All my life's a circle,
but I can't tell you why,
Seasons spinning round again,
the years keep rolling by.

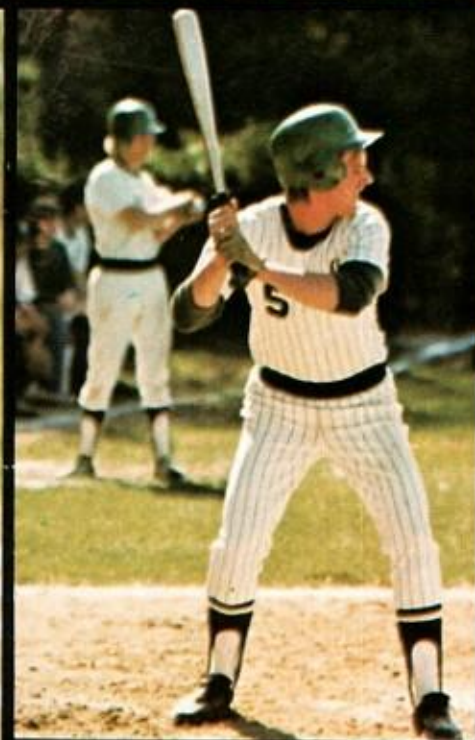

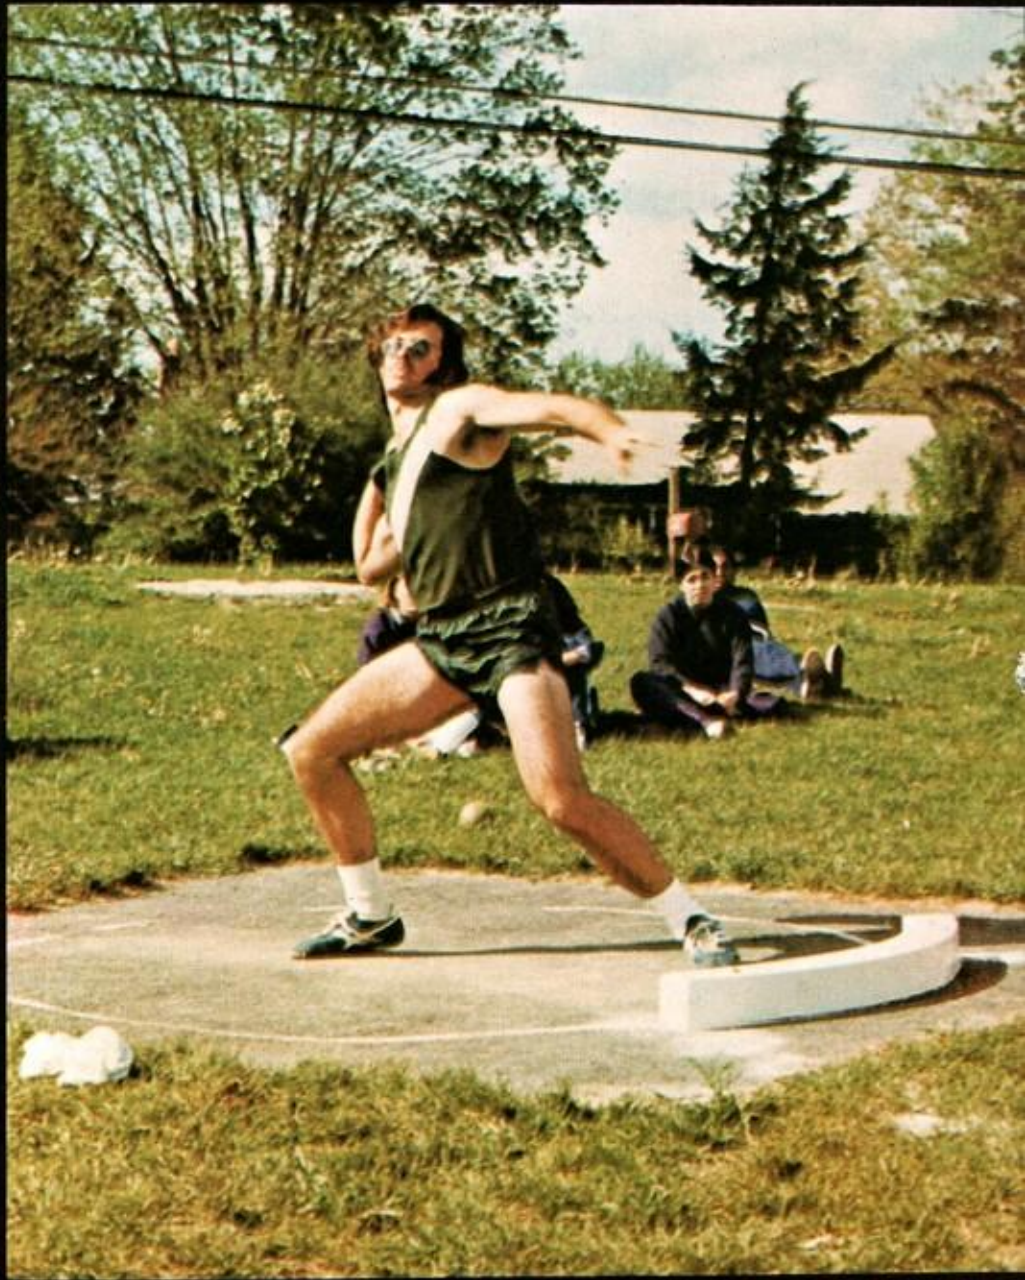

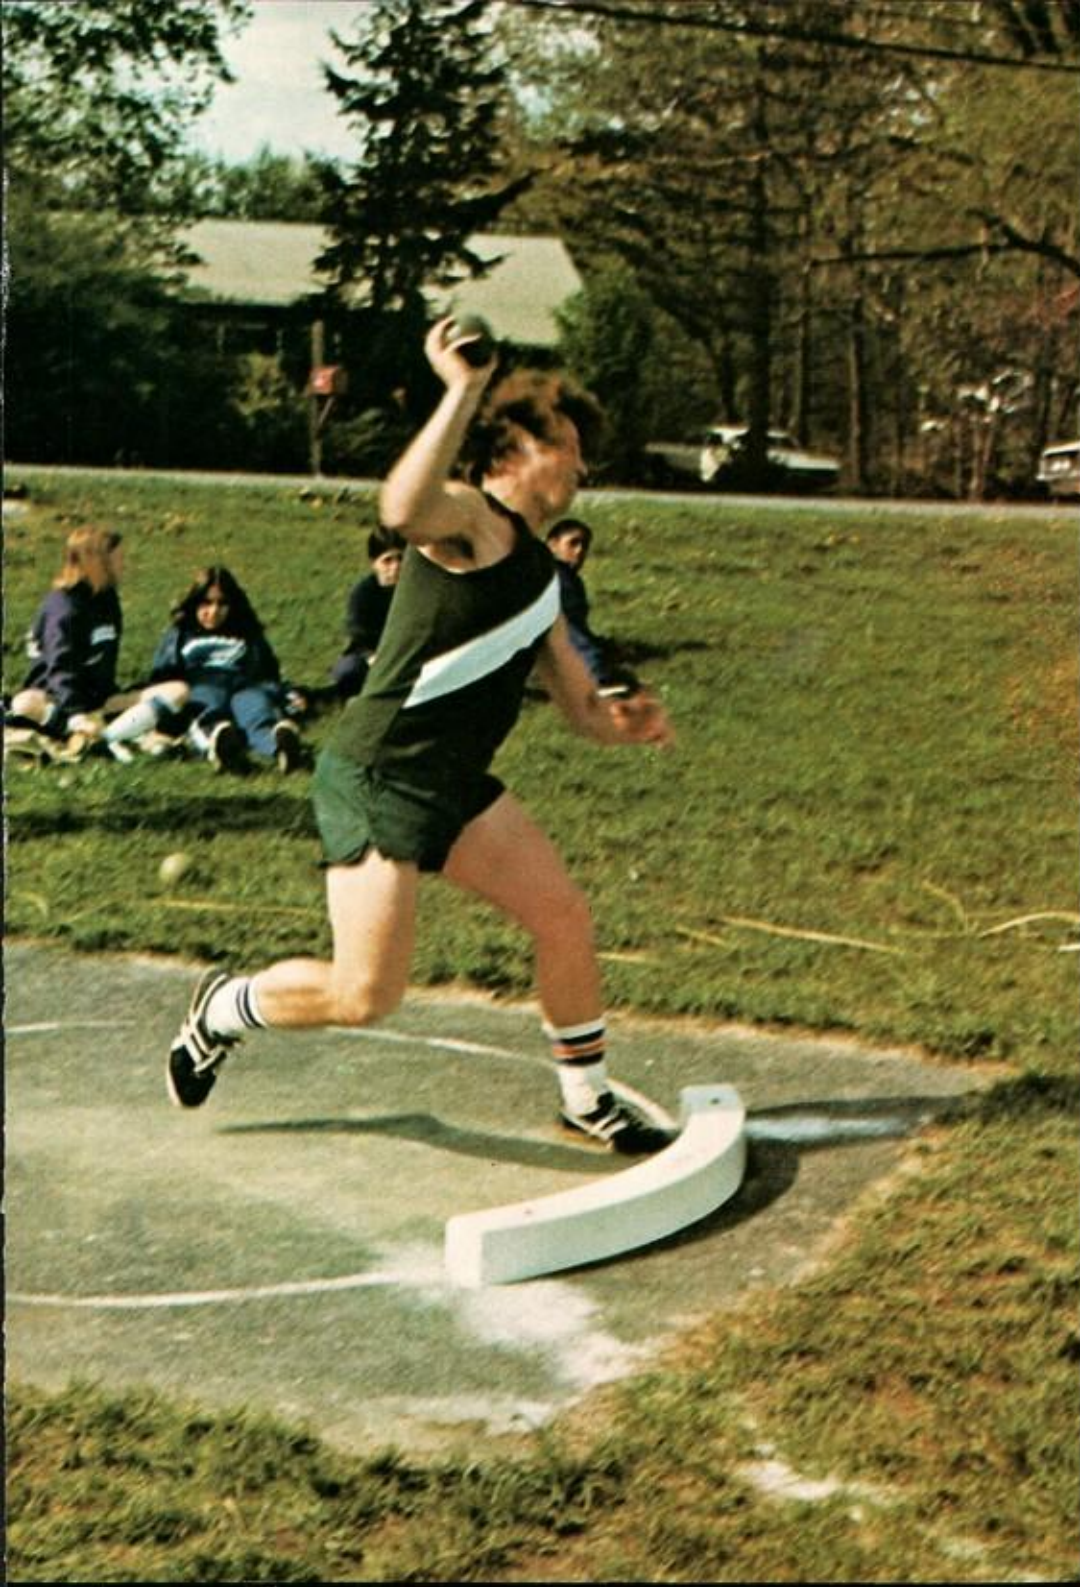

It seems like I've been here before,
but I can't remember when, yes I can,
And I got this funny feeling that we'll all be together again.

There are no straight lines that make up my life,
and all my roads have bends.
There's no clear cut beginnings and so far no dead ends.

H. Chapin

Your Life My Friend

*Here you are at a fork in the road
Don't know where you're going,
so you're just going slow.
You're afraid if you have to choose you win less than you lose.
Don't you know*

*No one can put the ropes on you, but keeping your freedom has you tied up, too.
While you sit trying to decide,
there's so many things that you could have tried.*

*Everybody's got to take the chance,
Everybody's got to make a stand.
You'll be choosing in the end.
Cause this is your life, my friend*

Something final in a closing door reminds you that you're not so young anymore.

*And you see your death presaged,
the burning of a heart,
the turning of a page.*

J. and J. Hall

Here you are
